

Make the federal Do Not Call law stronger than New Jerseys than you don't have to try and repeal a law that already is not strong enough. Try and give the american public what they want not what the lobbyists want.